

Why Join the Friends?

We're always happy to welcome new friends. If you love the Library and want to make a difference, becoming a Friends member is an easy way to do just that!

Membership is only $5 a year. Friends members have the opportunity to have fun, meet like-minded people, volunteer and feel good about supporting a service that benefits everyone in the community.

Plus, Friends members who volunteer at one of our book sales get to pick out 10 free books from the sale.

If you are interested in joining the Friends, please complete the form on the other side of this brochure.

Friends have fun and help make a difference in the community – your library needs friends!

Who are the Friends of North Vancouver District Public Library?

The Friends are a group of over 150 community members dedicated to the support and enhancement of North Vancouver District Public Library facilities, services, and programs.

Our members span all ages from high-schoolers to seniors. Some Friends are actively involved, others are quietly supportive – but all care deeply about North Vancouver District Public Library.

If you love the Library, becoming a Friends member is an easy way to make a difference. The Library is always happy to welcome new Friends.

The Friends host two to three large book sales a year to help raise funds for enhancements to North Vancouver District Public Library.

What do the Friends do?

The Friends help support North Vancouver District Public Library in a variety of ways, including

- hosting two to three large sales of books, CDs, and DVDs a year (these sales make up the bulk of our fundraising)
- organizing other fundraisers such as silent auctions and raffles
- volunteering for a range of library events including author readings, District Library Gallery art receptions, Summer Reading Club celebrations, and more.

The Friends hold meetings once a month to discuss ideas on how to enrich North Vancouver District Public Library services.
